

Transform Asset Tracking with the New & Improved eTrakLogic® Solution from Dakota

What is eTrakLogic?

eTrakLogic is a cloud-based, cost effective and fully scalable solution that enables the tracking of any asset or item in transit including: time-sensitive blood samples, specimens, pharmaceuticals and the patient transport service.

Developed for the healthcare supply chain, eTrakLogic provides pick up and proof of delivery information alongside job scheduling and management notifications, comprehensive dashboards and reports relating to workforces, jobs and assets.

Features & Benefits at a Glance

- Complete end-to-end solution
- Fully customisable & hosted solution
- Real-time data capture
- Replace manual processes
- Receive instant job updates
- Customisable alerts for items in transit
- Option to integrate with back-office systems
- Generate & export reports in various formats
- Simple & easy to use with multiple use cases
- Improved customer service

Time-Critical Efficiency

Collection & Delivery

Real-Time Updates

Find Out More

Contact Dakota today to start your improvement journey, or scan the QR code to find out more.

Dakota Healthcare
0161 776 4009
nhs@dakotais.co.uk
dakotais.co.uk/healthcare

eTrakLogic for Healthcare

©11.2026 Dakota Integrated Solutions, Integration House, 10 Mercury Way, Mercury Park, Manchester, M41 7LY